

Materials:

- small pictures of all the living beings in the web chain
- wooden yard of three different colours

Instructions: each student must choose one picture, and connect with a wooden yard with other students that eat him or that he eats.

In the following slide, green yards connect herbivorous with producers, blue yards connect second level consumers with herbivorous and red yards connect third level consumers with second level

