

THE MATCHING GAME

Joan Mirò was a	painter, sculptor and ceramist
He is known for his	surrealistic paintings
He was born in	Barcelona, Spain
He began drawing classes	at the age of 7
Joan Mirò started the Art Academy	at the age of 19
He liked	to create cubist and surrealistic paintings and sculptures, too
His works are filled with	symbols, including birds, women and stars.
The ceiling of his bedroom was	full of painted stars

He was a friend	of Pablo Picasso
There are two museums dedicated to his	artworks, one in Barcelona and the other in Palma de Mallorca
His work is like a	recreation of the childhood