

NAME AND SURNAME.....CLASS.....DATE.....

Write the boundaries of the following countries:

2. Complete the following text with the words in the box:

Canada is situated in the part of the American continent. It is the..... largest country in the world by total area. . The land is quite..... . The west of the country is occupied by the Along the USA border there are four of the:,,, There are the, a major source of power which offers a breathtaking view.

The Republic of South Africa is situated on the of the African continent. The in the east are the highest mountain range in South Africa. Africa is rich in for wild animals and parks, of which the biggest is South Africa has different: extremeclimate in the north-west,in the east and in the south-west.

Australia is called “.....” because of its rich resources, its varied and culture and its tolerant society. Australia is thecontinent and at the same time theisland in the world. The includes the highest peak on the Australian mainland. The largest desert is the

- 1 multiethnic 2 desert 3 tip 4 Drakensberg Mountains 5 natural 6 Great Victoria 7 second 8 the Lucky Country 9 reserves 10 northern 11 Great Lakes 12 biggest 13 Great Dividing Range 14 Huron 15 Ontario 16 smallest 17 Kruger Park 18 hydroelectric 19 Erie 20 Rocky Mountain Range 21 Superior 22 Niagara Falls 23 temperate 24 varied 25 climatic zones 26 subtropical 27 landscapes

3. Match the following words with the right country

1 Nelson Mandela 2 Great Barrier Reef 3Aborigines 4 Commonwealth 5 Rainbow Nation 6 Queen Elizabeth II 7 The Mounties 8 genocide 9 Ottawa 10 Republic 11 26th May 12 Calgary Stampede 13 African National Congress 14 Inuit 15 Zulu

CANADA	SOUTH AFRICA	AUSTRALIA

4. True or False (correct the false sentences)

- 1 In South Africa there are two capital cities. T F
- 2 Agriculture is very widespread in Canada. T F
- 3 Nelson Mandela was the king of the Republic of South Africa T F
- 4 Baffin Island is the smallest arctic island in Canada. T F
- 5 James Cook was a Dutch sailor. T F
- 6 Canada is a federal union of 3 provinces and 10 territories. T F
- 7 The Milky way of the Pacific Ocean is Sydney. T F
- 8 Vancouver is on the eastern coast of Canada. T F
- 9 For the Aborigines, Isuma, means respect. T F
- 10 Cape Aghulas is the meeting point between Indian and Atlantic Ocean T F
- 11 In South Africa there are 11 official languages. T F
- 12 In South Africa there are two kinds of economy T F
- 13 Australia is called the Land under below because it is under Asia T F
- 14 Australia is a leading world’s producer of wood T F
- 15 In South Africa English is the only lingua franca T F
- 16 Canberra is the most populated city in Australia. T F

5. Answer the following questions (full sentences)

- 1 What is the form of government in Canada?
- 2 What is the symbol of Canada?
- 3 How did Nelson Mandela call the white people in his first speech after the prison and how did he describe himself?
- 4 What are the capital cities of South Africa? Write about the differences.
- 5 Who are the “Stolen generations”?
- 6 What is the Outback?